Subscription Advantage (SA) program

Included in the price is 1 year free support and software updates, after a year this subscription can be renewed for the total amount paid divided by 5. For example :

25 x App-V Scheduler Enterprise Server OS Machine license (€56,25) = €1406,25 (Includes 1 year SA). After 1 year you will receive a reminder if you want to extend SA for another year, in this example this will cost $€1406,25 \div 5 = €281,25$.

Please note that SA is completely optional and will not affect the currently running App-V Scheduler version and functionality.

What's included in the subscription:

- Support through e-mail with the deployment of App-V Scheduler
- Support through e-mail with configuring App-V Scheduler and the App-V 5 client
- Support through e-mail with the deployment\management of packages
- Software updates

What's not included in the subscription:

- Support with sequencing of applications and application functionality itself

License certificate delivery

The license certificate containing the license key is delivered electronically, this key will unlock all functionality in App-V Scheduler. The same key can also be used to access the App-V Scheduler Central View console (the Central management console of App-V Scheduler). The license key is registered on company name and cannot be exchanged or resold.
